CORPORATE

“Working with Ralph Anthony was an absolute pleasure. He took the time to learn about the event, he was responsive when I had questions, and importantly, it felt like he customized his material to our group. At the actual event, he was hilarious! Ralph’s comedy covered issues of the day (which was great), and then he did a special segment for our guest of honor. It was a grand slam! I highly recommend Ralph Anthony for any event where comedy is needed (isn’t that all events?).”

PRIVATE PARTIES

“We booked Ralph for my husband’s 40th birthday party and he did an amazing job. Leading up to the event we had an initial call to discuss the party and he also sent me a Q&A so he could learn about my husband. The night of the party, he was on time and came equipped with some great jokes and also did an awesome job improvising with our guests.

Everyone was laughing and having a great time and I had several people reach out to me the next day to let me know how much they enjoyed it! I highly recommend booking him, this was a great experience!!

“Ralph was the perfect comedian for my husband’s 40th birthday party. He did a bit, then a roast and MC’d our friends roasting my husband. He killed it! I cannot say enough about how funny he was. He fit in like we were friends for years. He responded to all my questions and was incredible to work with.

I was impressed with his banter with the crowd and feeling people out. Everyone commented on how funny he was and was amazed that we didn’t know him somehow. This party was definitely the best birthday and a lot of that credit goes to Ralph. You will not be disappointed, hire this man!”
